Auction Thank You by Mr. Hucks

Another auction has come and gone! The fun Monopoly theme, delicious food, fabulous auction items, and the friendly bidding wars all made for an exciting night for our SJCS community. The planning team did an amazing job of organizing it and pulling everything together. Mark entertained us with his auctioneering and comedic skills. It was awesome to see so many of you come out in support of SJCS. We are truly grateful for everyone who donated services, gifts, and resources for the event. We are inspired by those who also volunteered their time to help out. The auction raised much-needed funds (at this time over $86,000) to improve our technology and facilities which will be used to enhance learning and better equip our students to impact the world for Christ.

In supporting SJCS through the auction and other means, you are helping us lay the groundwork in preparing future generations to serve Christ. David Livingston, adventurer and missionary to Africa, understood the value of laying the groundwork. He was criticized by his contemporaries for being more of an explorer than a missionary. Yet, he understood that before the gospel could be taken into the interior of Africa, trade routes would have to be opened and slavery abolished. Livingston also understood that his efforts might not have immediate fruit and that he might not even see the fruit of his labors; however, today, the effects of Livingston's gospel endeavors are still evident in parts of Africa.

Your support of SJCS whether financial or otherwise goes a long way in helping us lay the spiritual and educational groundwork that will have far-reaching and long-term effects.

300 Tigers – Word of Mouth Marketing – Training – Sweatshirts

SJCS will grow to 300 Tigers with your help. Our statistics show that personal referrals are the most effective tool to bring new families to SJCS. With that in mind, we have customized a 30-minute training session to help you tell your story. We would love every parent to participate in the training. Our gift for attending is a beautiful SJCS hoodie. Take the training and walk out fully prepared to share your SJCS story. Click here to sign up. Dates and times of training are:
